

Cabernet has a relative maturity of 55–60 days. The variety produces a strong globe shaped root with a deep red appearance. The tops are semi-erect with bright green foliage. Cabernet is very adaptable to many climatic conditions. The variety has a high yield potential of marketable roots.

- 55–60 days to maturity
- Globe Shaped
- Deep Red Interior
- High Bolting Tolerance.
- Tolerances: Cercospora Leaf Spot and Powdery Mildew.